PRESIDENT: The bill fails. Senator Warner, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR WARNER: To inquire of the Chair what if any procedure
I could use to explain the green sheet figures so the body can be aware of how they are compiled.

PRESIDENT: I would like to suggest essentially the same technique that the man from Big Springs did, and that is to, when we get to 800A you file a motion to return for a specific amendment and then get back at him any way you want and then withdraw your motion.

SENATOR WARNER: Thank you, Mr. President, it was not for the purposes of getting back, but to clarify, because I....

PRESIDENT: And, very gently I will try to keep you within the bounds of your motion as I did, Senator Mills.

SENATOR WARNER: Thank you, sir.

PRESIDENT: LB 713. Oh yes, when we were considering LB 643 the bill passed on the 31 vote, but it had the emergency clause on it. The Chair failed to resubmit the bill without the emergency clause, and the Chair and the staff apologize for that. It is only proper now to resubmit...to announce that this bill will now come up for vote without the emergency clause. So having failed to attain the Constitutional majority with the emergency clause the question is shall 643 pass without the emergency clause. Record your vote.
Have you all voted? Record.
